Re: PSC Case No. 2005-00475

Dear Ms. O'Donnell:

The referenced case arose from an emergency motion filed by Bluegrass Telephone Company d/b/a Kentucky Telephone ("KTC") on November 25, 2005. That motion alleged Kentucky ALLTEL Inc. ("ALLTEL") was blocking certain traffic originating from KTC customers.

After a November 29, 2005 telephonic conference which included the parties and Commission staff, ALLTEL agreed to place into the record written assurance that, pending Commission resolution of this matter, ALLTEL would take no action to block KTC customer calls as described in KTC's Motion. ALLTEL filed such a letter on November 30, 2005. ALLTEL subsequently filed a motion to dismiss KTC's emergency motion.

KTC is currently not experiencing the problems which forced it to file the emergency motion in November. Accordingly, KTC does not object to dismissal of this case without prejudice. KTC of course reserves the right to seek further relief if there is additional blocking in the future.
